

New Zealand Maritime Museum HUI TE ANANUI A TANGAROA

Explorers and Adventurers

Discover the amazing journeys of exploration made by Kupe, Tasman, Cook and Sir Peter Blake.

Why do people explore? What traits are typical of explorers? How has exploration changed over time? How do explorers navigate? How has navigation changed over time? What are the differences between explorers and adventurers? What are some of the great exploration stories that relate to the Pacific and New Zealand?

Programme overview

This programme explores our inspiring galleries including:

An Educator-led workshop where students learn about famous explorers that have a connection to New Zealand. Your students will have opportunities to examine the dangers and difficulties involved as well as the amazing accomplishments of explorers throughout time.

Te Waka a 15 minute, immersive animated masterpiece of the great voyages of exploration by the early Polynesians.

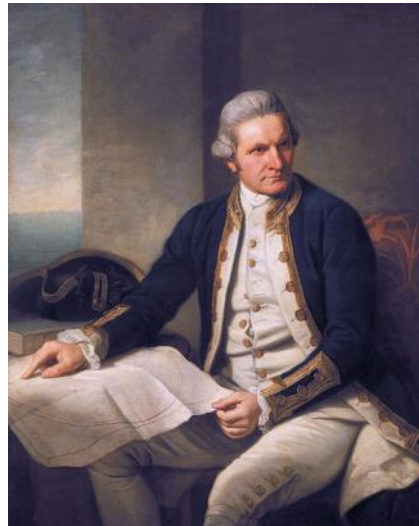

A self-guided trail to explore the rest of the Museum's magnificent collection. Students will follow the trail in small groups led by their adult supervisors. This will enable your students to explore and learn at their own pace.

Please talk to our Educators when booking about additional learning experiences including:

- Explore the harbour on our sailing heritage vessel Ted Ashby (subject to availability)
- Explore Auckland's waterfront with your students Auckland Waterfront Experience (Educational Walk)
- Step on board a waka hourua
