

New Zealand Maritime Museum HUI TE ANANUI A TANGAROA

Ports of Auckland Harbour Discovery

A unique opportunity to take a boat cruise to view the working wharves of the busy Port of Auckland.

Programme overview

Ports of Auckland Ltd and New Zealand Maritime Museum are pleased to offer your school the unique opportunity to explore, first hand, the critical role the Port of Auckland plays in the economy of New Zealand.

Just a short, two minute walk from the museum, students board a vessel chartered by Ports of Auckland Ltd for a cruise around the busy wharves with a live commentary specifically written by Ports of Auckland Ltd to identify port activity and infrastructure of interest to students.

Your cruise is followed by a visit to explore the New Zealand Maritime Museum. Students will have the opportunity to discover the essential place sea trade has had in the history and current economic development of New Zealand.

Harbour Cruise points of interest

General wharves, container wharves, container cranes, straddle carriers, tug boats, cool stores for bananas and other fruits, cruise ships, recreational yachts and launches, Tank Farm – bulk liquid imports, Auckland Harbour Bridge, Westhaven Marina, the New Zealand Maritime Museum, and Viaduct Harbour.
