Programme overview

This new programme is set amongst our Blue Water Black Magic gallery- a legacy to the life and achievements of Sir Peter Blake. During your visit students will take part in :

An Educator- led workshop where students discover some famous New Zealand leaders. Your students will have opportunities to discuss what leadership is, set leadership goals and be inspired to develop their own leadership style. They will be challenged to work together to complete set tasks along the waterfront accompanied by their adult supervisors.

A self-guided trail to discover the rest of the Museum's magnificent collection. Students will lead small groups accompanied by their adult supervisors. This will enable your students to follow their own interests and practice being a leader.
